NEWPORT NEWS, VA.

WIRE BETRAYED HIM

George Hawkins Made Unsuccessful Attempt to Break Jail

HAD MADE DUMMY KEY OF IRON

Shot From Revolver of Officer Curtis Startled the "Jail Birds," But Sent

Hawkins to His Cells Without Ceremony—How Trick Was Worked.

A system of electric bells served to notify Deputy Sheriff Charles C. Curtis, who is keeper of the Hampton jail, last night a prisoner, confined on the first floor was attempting to break open the door leading to the cells.

When Mr. Curtis quietly went to the scene he found Richard Hawkins attempting to unlock the combination lock with a dummy key. Deputy Sheriff Curtis took no chances and ere Hawkins knew it a bullet was coming in his direction. The negro man lost little time in crawling back into his cage, while Mr. Curtis heard the key drop from his hand to the floor.

Hawkins had taken a piece of sheet-iron and made a key with which he hoped to secure his freedom. The nicks in the key were made by sawing the sheet-iron against one of the iron bars.

In order to unlock the door Hawkins was compelled to reach his arm through the bars and in doing this his arm came in contact with the secret wire, which is connected with the alarm bell in Mr. Curtis' sleeping room and also in the private office.

Hawkins told the officer that he did not intend to leave the jail, but simply desired to get into the corridor.
If he had accomplished this Hawkins declared he intended giving the key which unlocked the door to the deputy sheriff.

In the same cells with Hawkins are ten or twelve prisoners and it is possible that if Hawkins had accomplished his intended escape from the cells and then cut his way through the window a wholesale jail delivery would have been the result.

Sometime ago Deputy Sheriff Curtis had the several floors of the jail connected with his apartments by secret wires and a prisoner has little chance now to even stir about in cell without acquainting the officer on duty with his movements.

Hawkins is in jail awaiting the action of the grand jury on the charge of feloniously cutting a white man with a pair of oyster tongs. He is a Baltimore negro and is about nineteen years old. The manner in which he made the key would indicate that he is an expert at the business and it may be that Hawkins will be found to be wanted in the Monumental City.

WOMAN BRUTALLY BEATEN TO DEATH

Negro Claimed That Lizzie Jackson, an Irishwoman, Hoodooed His Wife—Murderer Escapes.

(By Associated Press.)
RICHMOND, VA., July 31.—Lizzie Jackson, an Irish woman, was brutally beaten to death at Mount Laurel, Halifax county last night, by Early Moseley, a negro, who claimed that the Irish woman had hoodooed his wife.

Moseley made his escape and has fled the county.

May Hang Husband to Save Honor.

(By Associated Press.)
ROME, GA., July 31.—Mrs. Elizabeth L. Sanford, wife of the man who shot and killed George Wright, city ticket agent of the Southern railway, because of alleged intimacy between Mrs. Sanford and Wright, said that she will have to defend her honor, although it may mean the hanging of her husband.

"As to the charges Mr. Sanford makes, I can only deny them most emphatically. A few small trivial circumstances have been exaggerated and dwelt upon hideously," declared Mrs. Sanford.

Twins were born to Mrs. Wright, wife of the murdered man, last week.
They lived only a short time.

Dutch Fleet Pounds Fort.

(By Associated Press.)
AMSTERDAM, July 31.—The Dutch expedition sent against the rebellious native State of Bondi, in the island of Celebes, one of the Sunda Islands in the East Indies, inflicted severe punishment upon the natives, 250 of whom were killed. The fortifications of Badjoewa, one of the chief towns, were razed by the guns of the warships.

MR. COLLIER STRUCK MILLER.

Lively Scene Took place in Magistrate's Court Last Night.

During the hearing of the case of A.
Reisfield, charged with conducting a gambling house, last night a lively scrap took place between attorney Fay S. Collier and one of the witnesses named Miller. Mr. Collier, after a battle of words struck Miller and it looked for several minutes as though trouble would follow.

Magistrate Gaylord, however, closed the incident by calling the attention of the belligerent men to the fact they were in court.

After hearing the evidence Magistrate R. L. J. Gaylord dismissed the charge against Mr. Reisfield.

It seems that Mr. Reisfield had gotten Miller to get out a liquor license in his (Miller's) name and later a quarrel caused the two men to separate. Miller then took charge of the license.
